COUNCIL TAKES STEPS TO ACQUIRE LAND FOR MUNICIPAL PARKING LOT

DULLES MAY TAKE HAND IN IRAN DISPUTE

Washington (AP) — American-British oil talks with Iran, which appeared near success three weeks ago, now have bogged down to the point where settlement prospects are uncertain.

Some officials believe Secretary of State Dulles, who has been concentrating on Western European and Far Eastern problems, may have to take a hand personally in recent negotiations.

Britain and Iran appear unwilling to make further concessions until they are certain the Eisenhower administration fully supports the outlines of the settlement drafted under the former Secretary Dean Acheson.

The Acheson formula, it is understood, called for the United States to advance 100 million dollars to Iran to meet immediate pressing financial problems. This would have paid for future American oil purchases.

In return, Iran was to agree to submit its quarrel with Britain to the International Court for arbitration.

A combine of from four to six companies was to have been set up to move and market at least 20 million tons of Iranian oil annually.

Talks between American Ambassador Loy Henderson and Iranian Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadegh are still going on periodically. But negotiations are reported to have slowed down.

NEW MANSION FOR GOVERNOR PROPOSED

Harrisburg (AP) — Legislation to pave the way for construction of a new executive mansion for Pennsylvania's governor was in the hands of the Senate today.

The State Government Committee studied a bill introduced by Sen. Fred P. Hare Jr. (R-Somerset) to permit sale of the present 39 year old structure on Harrisburg's Susquehanna riverfront drive.

Hare, who is GOP whip, said he introduced the bill because that is "the only way we'll ever get the governor in a new building."

ABC Merges With Paramount Theatre

New York (AP) — Hotter competition for leadership among the networks, with radio listeners and television viewers the beneficiaries, is expected to result from a merger of the American Broadcasting Company and United Paramount Theatres, Inc.

Officials of the two firms, to be merged as American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, Inc., made it clear today they will seek to challenge the audience leadership of the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Company.

United Paramount operates 710 movie theatres and one television station, while ABC owns five standard and five frequency modulation (FM) radio stations and five TV stations. It provides network program service to 76 TV affiliates and more than 350 affiliated radio stations.

Sixteen Auto Accidents Investigated in January Report of Police Chief Reveals

According to the monthly report made by Chief of Police Mike Ryan to city council last evening, January of this year was a better month insofar as automobile accidents are concerned than January of 1952. Although there were 16 accidents in each month, last year there were seven motorists injured, one pedestrian, one automobile-bicycle accident, and one automobile-bicycle accident, with property damage totaling over $7,000. In 1953, no motorists were injured in any of the 16 accidents reported, two pedestrians were injured, there were no bicycles or sleds involved and no fatalities, and property damage was slightly over the $4,000 mark. Half the accidents occurred between five p. m. and midnight.

Other salient features of the report state that police answered 138 calls during the month, over half of them between three and eleven p. m., and traveled 2,220 miles. There were 16 minor investigations and seven major investigations. Stolen goods in the amount of $3,200 were reported recovered. There were eight special events policed and officers made appearances at both county court and justice hearings.

There were five arrests for drunkenness, three for disorderly conduct, two for drunken driving, and one for assault and battery. There were 540 traffic arrests, of which 508 were parking tickets. Most of the remainder were for speeding, reckless driving, and traffic light violations. $482 in fines was collected from these violations.

Thirteen officers were on duty for the month, with four days charged off to sick leave.

Borough Solicitor Authorized To Draft Ordinance Providing For Buying of Suitable Site

Borough Council's decision to draft an ordinance for purchase of less than an acre of ground at the foot of Market street brings the business section, a step nearer to a fair-sized municipal parking lot.

In addition to passing this resolution for the drafting of an ordinance, Council also decided to ask the Warren Planning Commission to make a thorough study of the flow of traffic in the borough. This move was sparked by the suggestion that a right turn north on Market street be permitted against a red light by means of a green arrow, similar to the arrangement at Conewango and Pennsylvania avenue, east.

These actions, taken at Monday night's February meeting, highlighted an otherwise routine session. While unanimous approval was given to the drafting of the ordinance providing for purchase of the Nelson and Ellberg property, a final decision on the matter rests with Council at its March 9th meeting when the ordinance, prepared by Borough Solicitor S. Knox Harper, will be submitted to a vote.

Former Senator Reed Dies at Sarasota, Fla.

Sarasota, Fla. (AP) — Former U. S. Sen. David Reed of Pennsylvania and for years a powerful political figure in that state died in a hospital here today.

Death came to the 72-year-old lawyer and World War I hero at 6:15 a. m.

He was a winter visitor here.

Bucknell University Coed and Boy Friend Located in Florida

Daytona Beach, Fla. (AP) — Police here yesterday found Miss Jacqueline Jane Mengoni, attractive 18-year-old Bucknell University coed, and a 16-year-old boy she ran off with 13 days ago.

Juvenile Officer Walley Gaddis said Miss Mengoni had been here eight or 10 days with Michael O'Connell of Bethesda, Md., a high school student.

The parents were expected to pick them up today, Dep. Supt. A. G. Layne reported. They were held on "routine runaway reports."

O'Connell led officers to the girl after he was detained for questioning when he tried to cash a check. She was working as a waitress at the Seaside Coffee Shop.

Gaddis quoted O'Connell as saying he and Miss Mengoni decided to leave home "for romantic reasons."

A 13-state alarm had been sent out for her when she was reported missing by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mengoni, after leaving Bucknell for a weekend at Washington.

O'Connell left his home Jan. 29 for Lewisburg, Pa., site of Bucknell, to visit Miss Mengoni. He had met her through his sister, Patricia also a Bucknell coed.

ANNOUNCES FURLOUGHS
Uniontown (AP) — About 500 workers at the Richmond Radiator Co., manufacturers of plumbing supplies, began two-week furloughs today. The firm closed yesterday because of lack of sales and excessive inventory. Production will resume Feb. 23.

PRISON PROBE IS EXTENDED TO ROCKVIEW

Bellefonte (AP) — A special five-man investigating committee turned to the Rockview Branch of Western State Penitentiary today for the second phase of its state-wide prison probe.

Named by Gov. John S. Fine, the committee is scheduled to tour the huge prison farm near this Centre County community. Some 800 inmates participated in a 72-hour riot here last month.

Six guards held as hostages were released and the riot ended after the governor issued an "unconditional surrender" ultimatum.

State police reinforcements continue to patrol the prison grounds.

The investigating group headed by Jacob L. Devers, a retired Army general, recently concluded a probe of Western State Penitentiary at Pittsburgh where a similar riot of a full day's duration preceded the outbreak at Bellefonte. The group has not made public its findings on the Pittsburgh institution.

The committee also is expected to check charges by Dr. Ralph E. Carrier, State College, former prison physician, that perversion is common at Rockview. The physician recently said he hoped the probe would make "a real inquiry" into the prison.

Fine and Atty. Gen. Robert E. Woodside have declined comment on the charges pending the investigating committee's report.

At Harrisburg, Senate Democrats last night asked for a full scale legislative investigation "of both the Pittsburgh and Rockview riots."

Some 50 guards, armed with rifles and tear gas guns, surrounded the cell block. Convicts in other sections of the 1,500-inmate prison, locked up for the night, remained calm throughout the disturbance.

The prisoners called O'Malley to the cell door and presented their demands:

1. Extension of their exercise period from the present 2½ hours to three hours.
2. Regular sentences for time required in the segregation cells.

O'Malley said the prisoners thought they were placed in segregation for indefinite periods for violation of prison rules. He explained the time had been specified but the convicts had not been notified. He told each of the prisoners how long they would have to remain in segregation—ranging from two to seven months—and took the other demand under consideration.

After that the convicts released the guards and permitted themselves to be locked up.

STATE PLANS LARGE PARK IN ELK COUNTY
Harrisburg (AP) — The General State Authority said today bids for work on the development of 100-acre Bendigo Park near Glen Hazel in Elk county will be opened March 11.

The project includes dam repairs, clearing of a lake for boating and swimming, repair of a stone house to serve as a headquarters building and construction of picnic buildings.

The Authority began the project three years ago at the request of the Department of Forests and Waters.

The firm was getting the equipment ready for the coming baseball and football seasons. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

WALLA WALLA PRISON SCENE OF EXPLOSION
Walla Walla, Wash. (AP) — Seven members of the Washington State Prison staff were injured yesterday in the explosion of a prisoner-manufactured bomb.

The blast was believed by prison authorities to have nipped a plot by a group of hardened convicts to blow their way to freedom.

DIES FROM EXPOSURE

No Decision Made As Yet Regarding Red China Blockade
Washington (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles told senators today President Eisenhower has made no decision on a possible blockade of Red China or other action in the Far East.

Dulles, who testified at a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was quoted by two senators as having told the group that any discussion of a blockade is "premature."

State Orders Corry To Erect Sewage Plant

The city discharges its sewage to the Brokenstraw Creek, scene of a recent fish killing down stream in Warren county.

Guards Seized By Rioting Prisoners In Oregon Freed

Salem, Ore. (AP) — A short-lived rebellion was put down at the State Prison last night and five guards seized as hostages were released unharmed.

Warden Virgil J. O'Malley said no prison property was damaged. The five unarmed guards were seized as they entered the segregation cell block to serve evening meals. One of the rebellious convicts—all segregated for continued violation of prison rules—was armed with an improvised knife.

Some 50 guards, armed with rifles and tear gas guns, surrounded the cell block. Convicts in other sections of the 1,500-inmate prison, locked up for the night, remained calm throughout the disturbance.

The prisoners called O'Malley to the cell door and presented their demands:

ROK ARMY OF MILLION MEN IS PROPOSED

BULLETIN

Seoul (AP) — Gen. James A. Van Fleet bade this dramatic farewell to his U. S. Eighth Army troops today:

"We have faith that President Eisenhower will find a way to bring peace to Korea as well as to the rest of the world."

The retiring commander spoke against the backdrop of the roar of heavy Allied tanks blasting away at Communist targets on the Central Korean Front. Van Fleet tomorrow will surrender command of the Eighth Army to Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor.

At the front, fighting dwindled to brief patrol clashes and one light Communist thrust.

Seoul (AP) — Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today a United Nations general offensive in Korea now would be a certain success.

On the eve of his farewell to the Eighth Army, the 60-year-old retiring commander again expressed belief in carrying the war to the Reds, said the U. N. lost opportunities for whipping the Communists, and called for a million-man Republic of Korea Army with 20 combat divisions.

Van Fleet made the statements in answering nine questions asked by The Associated Press as he prepared to turn over his command tomorrow to Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor and leave Korea for the first time since he arrived 22 months ago.

Authoritative sources say that for more than a year Van Fleet has not been able to launch a single battalion attack without consent from the Far East Command in Tokyo—and that Van Fleet himself was heart-sick when U. N. and U. S. decisions twice held him back from closing with the Reds for decisive, climactic battles in 1951.

Van Fleet declined to elaborate on how an offensive might be mounted in Korea. To do that would compromise possible future Allied operations. But his answer to his earlier questions—and his whole record in the Korean War—suggests the kind of battle he would have fought if he had his way.

It would probably have been a massive, violent, grinding line drive by the whole force of the Eighth Army from coast to coast with ruthless armored thrusts up the natural invasion corridors into North Korea, or wherever the Reds weakened and collapsed.

Decision on Bingo Up To Local Authorities

Harrisburg (AP) — Col. C. M. Wilhelm, state police commissioner said today it is up to local police authorities to determine if bingo is actually gambling under the law.

"A whole lot depends on the type of bingo activity that is going on," he told a newsman. "It's up to the district attorney and the courts to decide the merits of each case."

Most bingo affairs sponsored by churches and by local fairs are seldom prosecuted as gambling, he added.

The question was put to Wilhelm on the basis of a letter sent to all clubs by the State Liquor Control Board to clarify the board's position on gambling.

Conewango Township Tax Levy Is Reduced

An article has been received revealing that the Conewango township supervisors, following the final budget meeting, announced that the tax millage has been reduced from eleven to eight mills for the year 1953.

Residents of the township paying taxes for fire protection (those owning property within 600 feet of a hydrant) will also be pleased to learn that their water tax was reduced from seven cents to six cents a front foot.

The supervisors state that this reduction in millage, in spite of new public streets opened, such as Green avenue in Starbrick and Thomas avenue, North Warren, and in the face of rising costs of maintenance of roads and machinery, was made possible by the new equalized tax assessment roll.

The complete statement of the supervisors will be printed later.

Farm Problems Are Subject of Meeting At the White House

Washington (AP) — Leaders of the American Farm Bureau Federation cautioned President Eisenhower today against trying to solve the nation's farm problems satisfactorily by price fixing.

They said they expressed this view to Eisenhower at a White House meeting which federation president Allan B. Kline described as "most satisfactory."

Kline said the federation officials also told the President they were in agreement on the policies he had outlined to Congress in his State of the Union Message.

The meeting was an open move by Eisenhower to cement good relations with the powerful federation which had been snubbed by the Truman administration in bitter disputes over farm policies which had been endorsed by the federation.

U.S. Census Bureau Planning a Survey Of Retail Business

The U. S. Census Bureau will begin a month-by-month survey of Warren retail business early in February, according to Supervisors Marian S. Graves of the Bureau's district office at Buffalo, N. Y.

Questionnaires will go to a representative cross-section of stores whose operators will be asked to furnish sales data each month on a continuing basis. In addition, each month Census enumerators will visit an ever-changing group of local businesses in different sections of the area to obtain supplementary figures.

Sales data collected each month will be included with figures from 229 other areas of the country to provide national information on retail and service businesses.

The local survey will enable the Census to check the coverage of the forthcoming 1953 Census of Business and to include data in the 1953 Census for retail and service establishments which were started or went out of business during that year. It is also expected to provide more comprehensive current national retail sales figures, thereby improving the Bureau's program of monthly retail trade statistics which dates back to 1939.

Supervisor Graves emphasized that, as is the case in all census operations, information furnished to the Census Bureau is treated with strict confidence and only statistical totals are published. She pointed out also that such information cannot be furnished to any other government agency.

The following local resident has been appointed as enumerator in this census survey: Mrs. Martha E. Bova, 303 Beech St., Warren.

Losing every one in a series of battles, Gen. Nathaniel Greene nevertheless harassed the British out of Georgia and the Carolinas in the Revolutionary War.

Traffic Bottlenecks Definite Threat To Usefulness of Cars

Harrisburg (AP)—Traffic bottlenecks and accident tolls provide a definite threat to the usefulness of the private passenger car, an American Automobile Association official believes.

Russell E. Singer, executive vice president of the AAA, told the concluding session of the Secretaries' and Managers' Conference of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, that something must be done soon or the usefulness of the auto will be reduced.

Singer urged local clubs to support progressive motorist legislation.

"A new era of mobility such as the world has never experienced," could result from the solution of the accident and traffic problems, he predicted.

At the same time the federation, which represents 450,000 Keystone State motorists throughout 57 AAA affiliated clubs, was told to fight any proposed state "use" tax. A $10 tax on autos, trucks and buses has been suggested in the State Legislature as one means to increase revenues.

Mrs. Mary Corah, executive secretary of the Warren County Motor Club, attended the conference.

COSTLIER THAN ALASKA

The United States acquired the Virgin Islands from Denmark in 1917. The price of $25,000,000 for these 133 square miles was 3 1/2 times the amount paid for Alaska's 586,400 square miles.

The saury is a slender, long-beaked fish found in temperate parts of the Atlantic. It is related to the flying fishes.

Annual Visitation Is Made By Management Group to the Thomas Coupling Co. Plant

After the monthly dinner meeting of the Industrial Management Club of Warren County, at the YMCA Monday night, the members left in a group to make their annual plant visitation, this year at the plant of the Thomas Flexible Coupling Company on the South Side.

After partaking of a delicious ham dinner in the YMCA dining hall, the members were divided into groups of 10 or 12 and were conducted around the plant by members of the Thomas Flexible Coupling Company staff.

In addition to looking over the rows of turret lathes in operation, as well as the boring mills, keyseaters, grinders, drill presses and special machinery, the visitors watched couplings being dynamically balanced for high speed operation. There were heavy duty couplings as well as long slender couplings in the balancers.

One multiple spindle drill press built especially for Thomas couplings, would drill four holes and ream four holes at the same time the operator was loading and unloading the three position fixture.

V-belt pulleys were being turned on one Bullard vertical turret lathe while other Bullards were machining plates and flanges of large diameter. The hubs of flanges for couplings were being ground on a centerless grinder. A group of turret lathes turned and re-bored flanges while others were making special spacer washers.

Keyseaters were busy with their job of cutting keyways in flanges.

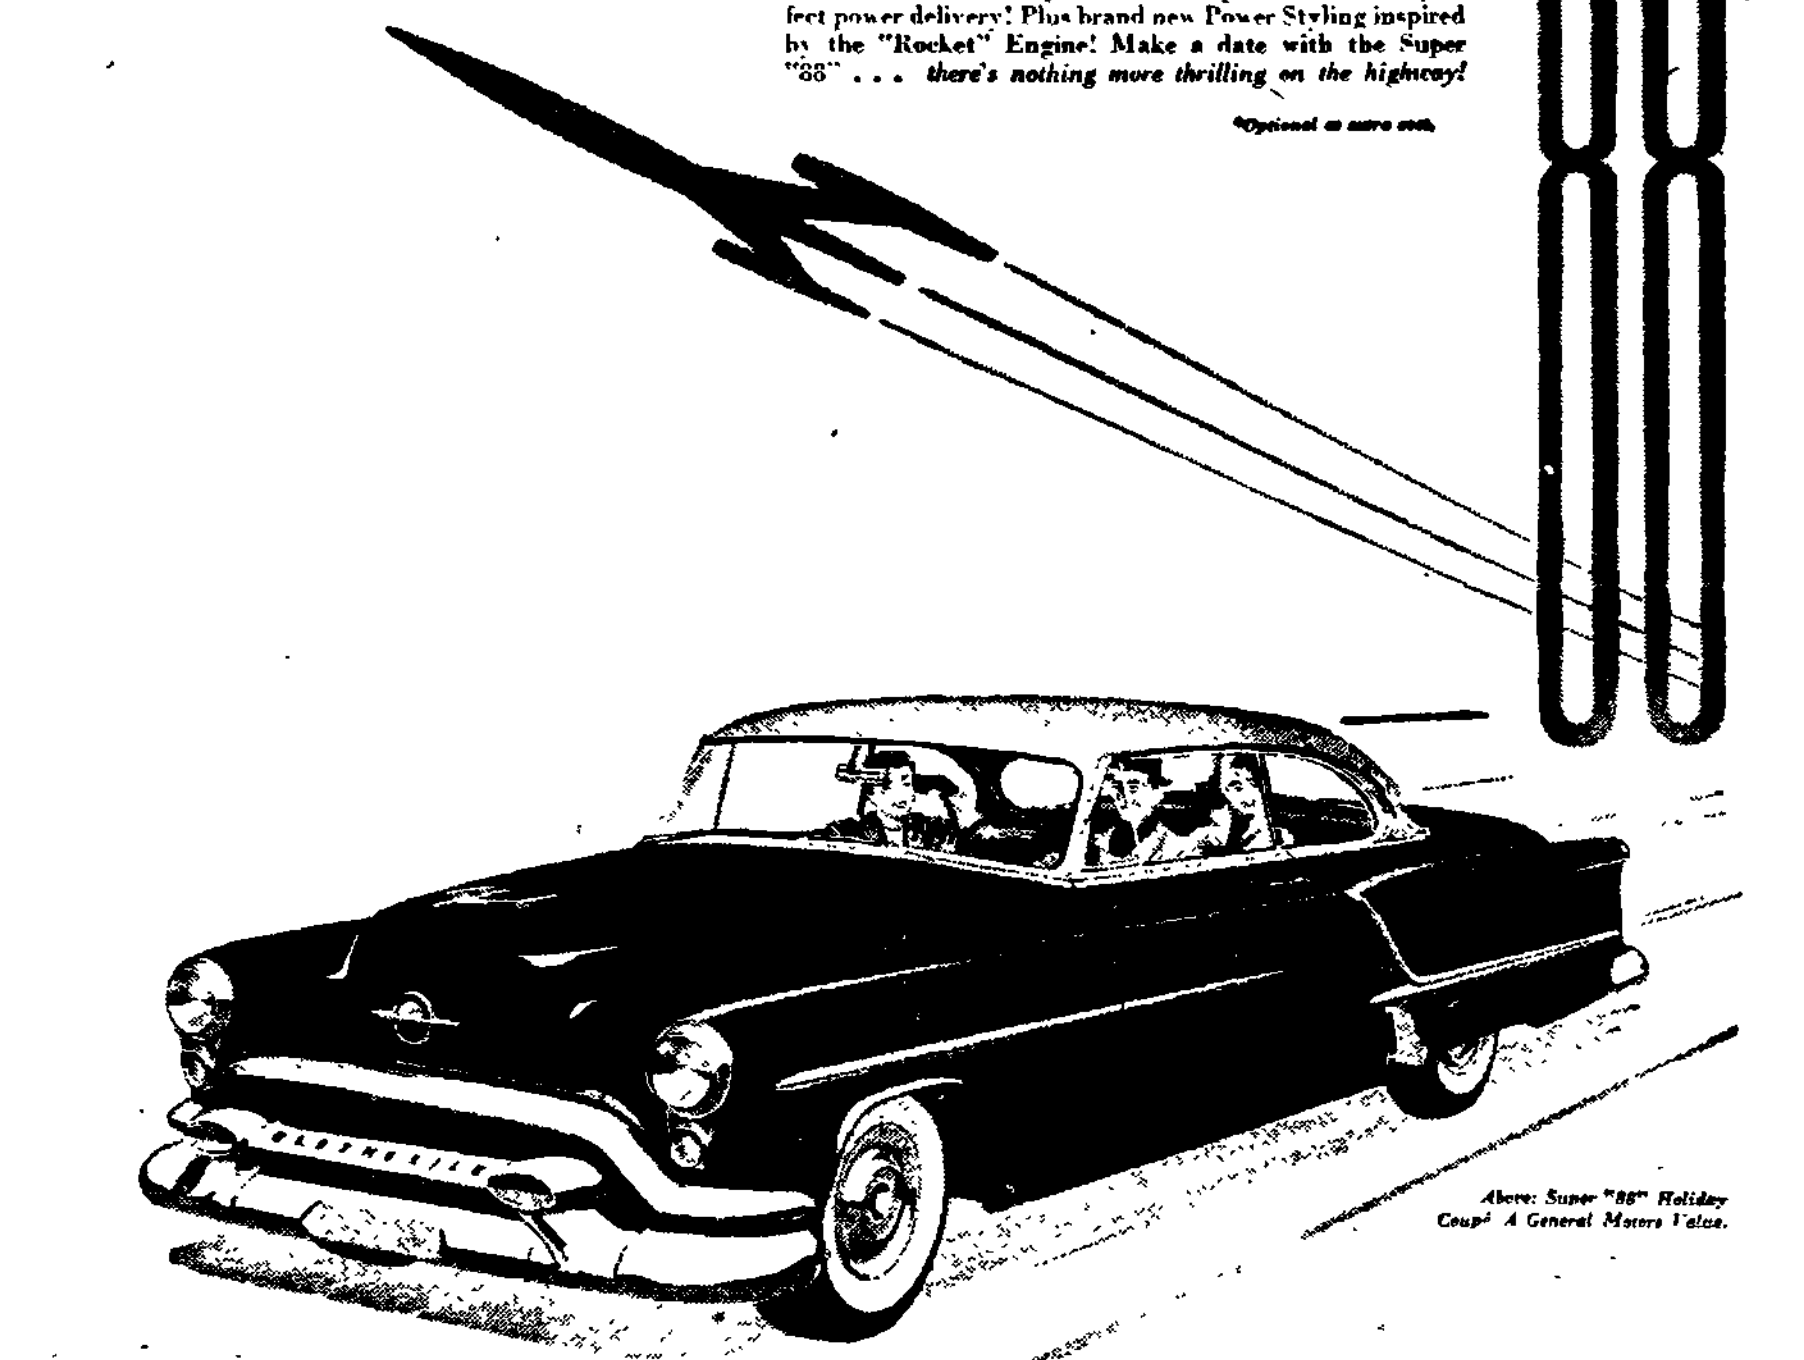

In the assembly department, a large coupling with a shear-pin feature was being completed while couplings of many types were in the final stages of completion.

Automatic turning lathes turned out completed hubs except for drilling, with a man standing by to load and unload the flanges.

All the machines and operations were selected and planned to produce parts with the greatest degree of accuracy. The success of the product is dependent upon the care with which all the parts are made. Favorable comments were made on the cleanliness and orderliness of the shop and of the favorable conditions under which the work was being done.

Emerson Abram, the new boys' work secretary at the YMCA, was introduced by Executive Secretary Dan Walton, and Mr. Abram gave the invocation at the dinner table. Some good old-time numbers including "Whispering" and "Ja-Da," were sung with Chris Pepke as leader and Lynn Keller at the piano.

Research Fights Heart Disease

HEART CATHETER being used to draw blood samples from a patient's heart. This device is proving valuable in the diagnosis of heart defects, and in studying the heart's function.

CHICKEN'S BLOOD PRESSURE being recorded in an investigation of the cause of hardening of the arteries.

TRACER DIGITALIS will be made from the leaves of this plant "breathing in" radioactive carbon dioxide.

HEART SURGEONS operating inside a patient's heart. This remarkable operation repairs damage to heart valves caused by acute rheumatic fever.

RESEARCH LEADS THE WAY in the fight against diseases of the heart and circulation. One of its most challenging tasks is the search for the causes of rheumatic fever, high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries which together account for more than 90 per cent of all heart disease.

Today, many clues to these causes are being intensively followed. For example, it is now believed that a fat-like substance, cholesterol, plays a part in initiating hardening of the arteries, the most widespread of all blood vessel diseases. A widely used technique for investigating hardening of the arteries involves producing the disease in animals by feeding them cholesterol.

Among the powerful new weapons available to medical scientists are radioactive isotopes, by-products of the Oak Ridge atomic pile, whose tell-tale rays can be measured with a Geiger counter. Substances in which these isotopes are incorporated can be accurately followed in their course through the body. In heart research, such tracer studies have revealed new information about digitalis, a drug used to strengthen failing hearts.

Research has produced valuable drugs for the treatment of certain heart diseases and important new diagnostic instruments. Among the latter is the catheter, a slender tube which can be threaded through a vein into the heart where blood samples are taken and pressures recorded, aiding in the diagnosis of heart abnormalities.

Research has opened the way to dramatic achievements in surgery on the human heart. Operations to correct heart defects present at birth have restored to health children, among them "blue babies," who once would have faced almost certain early death. One of the latest advances in this field is an operation to repair heart valves dangerously scarred by acute rheumatic fever.

Heart research has high priority in the program of the American Heart Association and its affiliates. Contributions to the Heart Fund provide urgently needed support for this key weapon in the attack on heart diseases, the leading cause of disability and death in the United States.

Warning Notice To Dog Owners Issued By State Officer

Ray R. Shaw, agent for the Bureau of Animal Industry, Endeavor, requests publication of the following notice of interest to dog owners:

On or about February 15, 1953 a general check up will be started for owners of unlicensed dogs.

All persons found owning or harboring unlicensed dogs will be prosecuted without exception.

The minimum fine is $5.00 and costs of prosecution and the maximum fine is $100.00 and costs or 30 days in jail or both.

It is not the wish of the Bureau of Animal Industry or your local enforcement officer to make these prosecutions and it is hoped that dog owners will take advantage of this warning and purchase their 1953 dog license at once.

The purpose of this check up is to license all dogs having homes and to distinguish them from the stray and homeless dog.

All dogs not bearing a current license tag are considered strays and may be disposed of by any officer on sight.

A fee of $2.00 is paid by the Commonwealth to police officers and constables for each stray dog disposed of and forms for reporting same may be secured from your local Bureau of Animal Industry officer or from the Dog Law Division, Bureau of Animal Industry, Harrisburg, Penna.

The purchase of a license does not permit your dog to run at large unaccompanied and it may be picked up by any officer.

So protect your dog and respect your neighbor's property by keeping your dog confined to your own property.

Social Science Club Enjoys Interesting Paper on Travel

Members of the Social Science Club were given a real treat in the form of a paper on "Travel" Saturday night at the Woman's Club. The paper was given by Max Rhoden of the Struthers Wells Corporation.

Mr. Rhoden was born in Vienna, the city of the Strausses, and the Waltz, as well as of Gluck, Mozart, Beethoven, Wagner, Haydn, Schubert and Brahms. He did not encourage his audience to dwell long on the "Beautiful Blue Danube," but if not on its beauty, much can be said of its legends, history, and importance. Blondel finding Richard the Lion Hearted, the Poet Ovid exiled to its shores. From its cradle in the Black Forest to its grave in the Black Sea, it sweeps 1600 miles, receiving en route the support of 60 tributaries. When we think of the Roman cohorts, the hosts of Attila, and the invading Moslems, he said, we reflect that cultivated fields and happy homes show the Danube at its best.

Mr. Rhoden did not speak of Vienna at its best but spoke of the more recent observations: Nature lovers, few cars owned by Viennese, going to school, the common school and the gym, the living standards, political life. He said the medical school no longer exists, and spoke of the Revolution of 1934.

Mr. Rhoden recounted his early travels to Rome, Naples, Vesuvius. He spoke of some red light districts but he didn't mention whether Vesuvius did any of the coloring. He said nearly everyone over there needs to know four languages to converse very freely and cited a little four year-old with this ability.

He told of the Nazis trying to put him in a concentration camp, and of his coming to the United States, of his trying to volunteer and later of his being drafted and of military life here.

Various mention was made of many kinds of activity he experienced in this country, in England, and in Ireland. He was watched closely as he observed matters around Fort Knox, Ky. He didn't make it quite clear just what he was sent over to Ireland to replace, any way he said they were still Irish when he came away from Erin.

He gave information accounts of going to the doctor with a broken leg, packing the major's bag, acting as interpreter. He was finally captured, taken back to Italy, a most hungry Viennese. He spoke of eating from garbage pits. The men in his group seemed to have a corner on Red Cross parcels and could trade advantageously for other food.

The prisoners were put to work at a V2 factory where much sabotage was practiced. They were put to work on a farm where Mr. Rhoden didn't prove a very good farmer. He made a second escape, the guard making a faulty count of his prisoners, indulged in a 500-mile march, nearly starved in a camp near Bremen; was finally released by the British, and obtained a new uniform. He secured a train ticket and then very graciously gave up his seat to an older man. Not many acts of this type were mentioned in the paper.

They ran into Adolph Hitler Naval Base when he heard the refreshing news, "Take him out and shoot him!" Mr. Rhoden recalls that the guards were poor shots. He did not give a good word for Nazi-land, but did speak gratefully of the supplies of food that were sent over from the United States and came his way.

MUNICIPAL PARKING LOT IN PROSPECT

While many of the details remain to be worked out and it may be some time before the plot is available, it is encouraging indeed to note that borough council has taken another essential step toward the important project of acquiring property for use as a public parking lot adjacent to the business section.

As will be noted in the writeup of the February meeting held last evening the property in question is located at the foot of Market street, and consists mainly of land reclaimed by filling in the old mill race.

Last night's decision paves the way for the borough solicitor to draft an ordinance for the purchase of less than an acre of ground. Such a plot would go a long way toward relieving the traffic congestion in and around the business section. It is hoped that necessary arrangements will be worked out immediately so that a Municipal Parking Lot will be made available with as little delay as possible.

HOW TO CUT THE BUDGET

In 1953, Americans won't start working for themselves until April 22.

All wages, salaries, rents, interest and dividends received up to that date will be gobbled up by taxes.

Altogether, levies by federal, state, and local governments will total about $90 billion, or 30 per cent of the national income, according to the U. S. Treasury and the Department of Commerce.

Which is another way of saying that citizens will work for the tax collectors during the whole first third of this year. This startling disclosure is contained in "Tax Facts," published by the Finance Department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The Chamber is convinced that take-home pay can be increased if government spending is wise and efficient. Recently, its board of directors recommended a limit on federal spending of $68 billion as "both necessary and possible" in fiscal 1954.

An analysis by the Chamber's staff on government expenditures shows that the $68 billion budget could be attained provided that, on the whole, no government agency is given more money to spend in fiscal 1954 than the lowest figure for expenditures of 1952 (actual) or 1953 and 1954 (estimated). Some agencies might justify more, a few, less.

To reach that $68 billion figure, the Chamber's staff checked expenditures, actual or estimated, for every major federal activity in those years against the requests for 1954. The total of the differences reached $10 billion, which, subtracted from the $78 billion total 1954 requests, leaves $68 billion.

That is roughly $10 billion less than the outgoing President asked.

The staff found instance after instance where the request for 1954 ran way ahead of the lowest expenditure, actual or estimated, for the three years checked. Which of course, helps to account for the whopping $78.6 billion estimated expenditures for 1954.

Cutting government budgets isn't easy. But it can be done. The Chamber is convinced the new Administration and Congress are determined to do their best.

It was with genuine sorrow that residents of this area learned of the death Saturday in Jamestown, of Dr. William E. Bartlett, 72, former superintendent of the Methodist church's Grove City District, and at one time a beloved and respected pastor in Warren. During his ministry here from 1936 to 1938, Dr. Bartlett enjoyed the esteem and admiration of churchgoers generally and people in all walks of life.

It isn't possible for kids to be too bad for fond parents to be proud of them.

Here And There

Construction news seventy years ago, as taken from the files of the Warren Ledger of February 10, 1883, follow:

The buildings in the new brick block are drawing near to completion. A. Kirberger's building is completed, and fitted up with all the late improvements. Messrs. Kirberger and Morck, have two buildings, finished below as one. The lower part is adapted to a first-class dry goods store, or grocery house of large proportions. They would be pleased to rent it as an Oil Exchange and telegraph offices, as they consider it adapted in size and conveniences for that purpose. The hotel of Leonard Brothers, adjoining, is nearly completed. This covers the space of two lots, three stories high above the street, and two basements, both well-lighted as all the basements in this block are. Mr. N. Greenlund has already taken possession of his building and filled the first and second floors with furniture. The third is being finished for families. In the block will be several suites of rooms for those who may desire them. There are eight buildings in all, the aggregate cost is not much less than one hundred thousand dollars. This is but a small portion of what was begun and finished within the year; and still there will be quite as much done during the coming season.

Here are a few more paragraphs from the Warren Ledger of February 9, 1883, pertaining to floods that had devastated that area seventy years ago:

Last Sabbath our people paid more attention to viewing the ruins by the flood of the previous night, than to religious matters. Everybody wanted to see where the bridges had been. We have no room to recount the hairbreadth escapes and the inconveniences occasioned by the high water among those living on the island.

On Sunday, February 5th, the Clarion river was very high, and considerable loss was sustained by a number of lumbermen. The ice being heavy when it went out, it took a large number of logs with it. One bridge on the new railroad was so damaged that it will have to be rebuilt, and the Whistle Town Bridge, four miles above Ridgway, was swept away entirely.

Thursday of this week, while young David Beaty and R. N. Mead were endeavoring to put a wire across the Conewango at the foot of Second street for the use of a ferry, the skiff in which they were at work, upset. Mr. Beaty came near to being drowned, while Mr. Mead was carried over the dam and was taken from the swift current very much exhausted.

TV Coverage of Press Talks Has 'Bugs' to Be Worked Out

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The prospect of televising one of President Eisenhower's press conferences—while intriguing to the great look-and-listen audience—has opened up a whole new panorama of technical, political, propaganda and psychological questions. There are matters of timing, a suitable place and time, making room for the cameras, providing proper lighting, shutting off eager-beaver reporters who might want to hog the mike with local-interest questions for hometown consumption, and, finally, protecting the President from any accidental slips of the tongue.

The long-established rule at all White House press conferences is that the President can never be quoted directly, without his official permission on specific points. That rule was established for the protection of the President against misquotation.

With a televised, live broadcast of a presidential press conference, however, any inadvertent slip of the tongue would be on the record for good.

The only way to avoid such mistakes would be to have questions submitted in advance and the carefully-prepared answers read into the microphones. This would completely destroy the spontaneity of the press conference atmosphere.

ONE other suggested way to get around this would be to record the press conference on film, then edit the film and censor out the bugs for a later kinescope telecast.

Television experts disapprove of this for several reasons. First, the spot news value of the press conference would be all gone by the time the TV show got on the air. Second, kinescope recordings don't have the same quality as live telecasts.

There are other technical problems which are even more bothersome. The four TV networks—NBC, ABC, CBS and DuMont—are perfectly willing to pool the operation. Even so, it would take three cameras to pick it up properly. Two would be on the President from different angles. The other would cover the reporters.

Each TV camera requires at least 25 square feet of floor space, crowding out a number of reporters. To shoot down on the press conference, as from a balcony, would be difficult photographically because of President Eisenhower's high and somewhat bald forehead.

Placing microphones so as to pick up the reporters' questions from all corners of a big room would be difficult, though it might be done by a long microphone boom, swung from overhead.

TIMING is another headache. If the press conference were put on in the morning it might be an "island" program—nothing before and nothing after. It would have a small audience.

Putting the press conference on at night would cut into paid programs. Or, if a press conference were held on a night, that would be the end of the President's popularity.

THE LINCOLN COUNTRY

Sketched on the Spot by Ralph Lane

NO. 3—FIRESIDE STUDENT

Henry Onstot's cooper shop is the only original "Lincoln" building in restored New Salem. Built in 1834, it was taken to Petersburg in 1840 and it remained there until 1920. It was brought back to New Salem when restoration began, and reconstructed on the first site. Some of the old logs have been destroyed, but others, treated for preservation against weather, stand staunch and strong. Where new logs were substituted, native oak was used. It was here that Lincoln, and Isaac Onstot, Henry's eldest son, studied law by the light of the burning shavings in the Onstot fireplace.

The Phrase 'I'll Ask My Wife' Doesn't Mean Wife Is Boss

IN a magazine article written by a man is this statement: "The phrase 'I'll ask my wife' is undoubtedly the most oft-repeated remark in the American husband's repertoire." The inference is made that those oft-repeated words are proof that women rule the roost.

Wives know better, however. They know their husbands often say with pseudo-meekness "I'll ask my wife." But they also know that doesn't mean, "I can't decide anything without asking my wife."

What it really means in nine cases out of ten is: "I don't want to come right out and say 'No,' and luckily I don't have to. I can always stall off a decision with: 'I'll ask my wife.'"

"If I decide the answer is 'No,' then I still don't have to stand behind it. I can say in a man-to-man, you-know-how-women-are tone of voice, 'My wife says, No.'"

HE USES THIS ALIBI

THAT gives a man a perfect out! He doesn't have to argue. He doesn't have to explain. He doesn't have to back up his decision with any reason at all.

He has asked his wife and she has put her little foot down and the matter is settled once and for all.

So that is why "I'll ask my wife" is so often said by husbands. It's not said because the poor men are so hesitated they aren't make a decision by themselves.

It's said because it is easier for a husband to hide behind a woman's "No" than to come out flat-footedly with a "No" of his own.

Since most men use the "I'll ask my wife" device fairly often it's amazing they fool each other with it. But at least they don't fool their wives.

Washington, Lincoln, Edison—February's great triple-gift to America and the world.

To our two great presidents we owe the vision of a free united America. To Thomas Edison we owe much of the power we need to preserve their vision.

For Edison harnessed the power of electricity.

Today, electricity enables every American worker to do the job of 222 men! It gives every American housewife the equal of 30 helpers! It gives us the time we need to be good citizens, the strength we need to defend our country.

What Edison started, America's business-managed electric light and power companies are carrying on—and on a scale so vast that even Edison could not have foreseen it.

Rockets Frighten Wills But Lose By one Point

Final Matches Give Warren Victory Over Oil City

CERTIFIED IS WINNER OVER YOUNGSVILLE

The Maroon clad Rockets outplayed a highly favored Wills Cleaners quintet, but fell down in the dying moments to lose a 49-48 heartbreaker before a loud crowd on the YMCA court last night. In a second contest Youngsville came close to snapping its seven game losing streak, but bowed out, 55-51, to Certified.

A 20-point rally in the second chapter set the Rockets ahead 25-20 at half time, but Wills came back in the third to gain a slim 35-34 advantage. An exciting seasaw final stanza resulted with the scoring an even 14-14.

Little Carmen Colosimo took over the scoring for towering Bob Simpson, who was held to one point, by tallying 16 counters. Bob Reese and Bill Massa each garnered 12 for the winners. The Rocket scoring was pretty well distributed, with Roger Babcock and Jim Stevenson high with 10 apiece.

The Wills aggregation showed red several times during the contest and Simpson was removed via the personal foul route. On the other hand some nice handling and shooting was demonstrated by Nick Creola, Babcock and Master-son for the losers.

Certified had to come from behind a 10-6 first quarter deficit, to pass Youngsville and led 24-17 at intermission. From there on they held on as Youngsville outscored them in the final two stanzas.

Jim Sigworth paced the winners by sinking 17 points, but the night's honors went to Bill Pollard with 18 points.

Rosey Likes Warren

President Bill Rice of the Warren Sports Boosters, has received the following note from A. K. "Rosey" Rowsell, who was speaker at last Wednesday's dinner for lettermen:

"Before I do one single thing this morning let me just send along this note to express to you my appreciation of your cordial hospitality to me last evening. You had one of the finest groups of men I have ever faced, and their apt attention was indeed an inspiration to me every minute I was on my feet.

"You are all to be congratulated on the fine boys of your various squads—I have never found a better behaved group in all my experience.

"Again my thanks and my warmest greetings to both you and Harry Schmidt."

The South Carver street girl who is studying sax cannot decide whether the family Scottie likes the music or hates it. Anyway, his accompaniment is more or less of an inspiration.

It took the popular little Warren dancing teacher, Penny Beach, to show Caesar Romero's brother a few tricks at the Marconi Outing club last week-end. There were no steps in the bee-bop or the Cuban rumba which Penny couldn't follow, and the versatile Mr. Romero said he'd never had a more able partner. With the Winner trio showing Mr. R. that a small-town band is right up to snuff, and with Casey Williams batting .500 as emcee, things moved along at a rapid pace. And we should know.

We don't remember the name of the man with the tractor-roller who did such a good job last year when he rolled all the lawns at Hackney Meadows, but hope he's planning to be around again this year.

Allen's been holding back for a week or two, so it's no more than right that he should finish off today's Windy Tunnel with a few jolts, jimcracks and jibes:

George Jason, entertainer extraordinary, who comes here Wednesday as a Talk of the Month Club attraction, boasts one accomplishment in his past that has nothing to do with Mirth, Music and Magic. While attending Queens University, he was for three years the Canadian intercollegiate heavy-weight wrestling champion.

When Ray, Jr., leaves for Boston later this month, it will mean he won't be here for Summer.

Brother Tommy Juliano may have been to Plum township last weekend for a wedding, but will have nothing on sister Bettie, who plans the trip for the coming weekend. It couldn't be Bill, Orr could it? We promised not to tell.

On a similar party line we heard that little Barbara is also carrying on telephone conversations with a certain New Wilmington lad.

If young Jack Hickey woke up Sunday morning and didn't feel like he had played three games of volleyball, then he'll have to tell us his remedy.

Fran Masterson always stops in for a few minutes Sunday, but with no sign of him this week, we shall assume he sort of wandered up toward Buffalo. And we can't say as we blame him one bit.

COACH VERSUS STUDENT

State College, Pa., Feb. 10.—It'll be coach versus pupil when Penn State's wrestlers engage the University of Pennsylvania here Wednesday night. ### Dragons' Height May Provide Victory Over Kane Tonight

The Kane High School Wolves will have their 11-game win streak at stake tonight, when they play host to Warren High's Dragons in a non-conference tilt slated for 8:15.

The little sharpshooters of the Hilltop have a 13-1 season record totaled up to match against the Dragons' 10-7 count for the campaign, and are undefeated with nine wins in the Allegheny Mountain League.

In an earlier contest in December the Wolves visited Warren and sank their fangs into a 62-47 victory.

Except for Swanson, Kane's starting center, the Dragon lineup has a height advantage over the Wolves and with some rebounding work and a good night from the field the locals may turn the trick. The probable lineups for tonight:

WARREN	POS.	KANE
Ettinger	F	McDade
Harrington	F	Migliazzo
Wilson	C	Swanson
Isackson	G	Kibbee
Hartnett	G	Gerhart

Seton Hall Is Again Named Week's Best College Court Team

New York (AP)—Undeclared Seton Hall, riding the crest of a 22-game winning streak, was voted top basketball team in the land today for the fourth straight week.

The Pirates from South Orange, N. J., stretching their reign as No. 1 team to the longest by any team this season, were picked as tops by 32 of the 75 sportswriters and broadcasters in the poll. On the usual basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second and so forth, Seton Hall totaled 598 points.

Also for the fourth week in succession, Indiana stormed in behind Seton Hall with Washington again taking third. Indiana, which whipped Wisconsin, 66-48, last night for the Hoosiers' 10th straight in the Big Ten, was voted first on nine ballots and had 504 points. Washington had 10 firsts and 485 points.

La Salle held fourth place this week, one jump ahead of Illinois, which trounced Michigan last night, 92-62.

Kansas State, upset by Nebraska Saturday night, dropped from fifth to 10th place this week. The K-Staters started bouncing back last night, however, with a 74-64 victory over Iowa State.

Oklahoma A & M climbed three notches to sixth, while De Paul held firm in seventh. Louisiana State moved up two places to eighth, moving Western Kentucky down to ninth. Western made its record 20-3 last night, however, by shellacking Loyola of New Orleans, 92-67.

Gavilan Is Favored To Win Over Davey In Chicago Classic

Chicago (AP)—Cuban Kid Gavilan, a confident 12-5 favorite, is looking past tomorrow's welter title defense against Chuck Davey to an excursion into the middle-weight ranks.

In the camp of unbeaten Davey, the Michigan State graduate with the near-perfect record of 37 wins and two draws in 39 pro fights, things are tense. Nerves are growing more taut. Handsome Chuck is on edge.

This sprawling metropolis boils with fight fever. Cab drivers sing Davey's praise. Professional bettors respect Gavilan's proven class. An advance sale of $210,000 is reported by the International Boxing Club's Truman Gibson, keeper of the Chicago Stadium treasury. TV salesmen offer a $25 ringside for free at 10:00 p. m., EST, on the CBS network.

Although Gavilan's handlers attempt to cloak his weight in mystery, the 27-year-old champ from Cuba expects no trouble. "I come in at 146½," he said yesterday.

Gavilan is unconcerned, period. He prefers to talk about what comes next.

Otis Douglas Joins The Baltimore Colts

Baltimore (AP)—Newest addition to the staff of the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League is Otis Douglas, former Philadelphia Eagles tackle and coach at Drexel and Arkansas.

Sorenson Likes His Duke University Job

A short talk with Ray Sorenson's father reveals that Warren's gift to the 1948 U. S. Olympic gymnastic team is enjoying his job as gymnastic instructor at Duke University.

Ray has said he would like to make his home in Durham, which may mean the signing of a 10-year contract.

PIRATES IN FOUR FOR THREE DEAL

Pittsburgh (NEA)—Talk about baseball oddities. The Pirates have lost pitchers Ron Necciai and Ron Kline, First Baseman Tony Bartolome and Shortstop Dick Groat to military service.

The Bucs first three returnees from the armed forces will be Fitcher Bill Macdonald, First Baseman Al Grunwald and Shortstop Danny O'Connell.

Ralph Hubbell And Buffalo Mayor To Lead Broomballers

Ralph Hubbell, dean of Buffalo's sportscasting fraternity and Sports Director of Radio Station WBBN, has been named to "Coach" the Radio broomball team for its eagerly awaited clash with the Press team on Bison Booster night, February 18th.

The hockey Bisons meet the Providence Reds in a regularly scheduled American Hockey League game that evening. The Bison Hockey Boosters also have scheduled entertainment between periods of the hockey game, and a dance following the game.

Hubbell, in accepting the draft, promised that he'd ice a "real powerhouse" to face the press broomballers.

"I have never coached a broomball team before," Hubbell stated, "but I guess that at least puts me on a par with the players of both clubs—they've never played the game."

It was previously announced that Mayor Joe McKel had accepted an offer to serve as Coach of the press team.

"Our team is sure to win," the Mayor commented. When asked why the confidence, the Mayor laughed. "With a Republican Coach the way things are going these days it's impossible to lose."

After their respective "signings" both His Honor and Herr Hubbell began assembling their teams.

Union Rescue Mission Plans Anniversary

The Union Rescue Mission, Jamestown, N. Y., will hold its anniversary service in Calvary Baptist church, Redwood and Center streets, Warren, Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.

At that time, the Mission will present the Rev. Ralph Mitchell, outstanding minister and Bible teacher, as the speaker, and J. Stratton Shufelt, noted Gospel singer, as the soloist. Both men are outstanding in their respective fields and have had a very extensive ministry.

Rev. Ralph Mitchell has been in this country only five years, but is already a noted evangelist and Bible teacher. He has preached in some of the country's largest churches, and has been engaged in some of the greatest of the summer Bible conferences, at Winona Lake, Marquette, Canadian River, Montrose, etc. For 13 years, Mr. Mitchell was pastor of Gateshead Baptist Church, Newcastle-on-Tyne in North England, and has recently been associated with Ex-angelist Billy Graham in some great revivals in the South.

Mr. Shufelt was for nine years director of music and pastor's assistant at the Moody Memorial Church, Chicago, sharing with America's leading evangelists in large scale, union, city-wide campaigns in the major cities across the nation. He has sung the Gospel in the 48 states, Canada, and Europe during the last decade. In 1938, with Dr. Harry Ironside, he retraced the itinerary of Moody and Sankey. With Billy Graham, he traveled through 10 of Europe's capitals in 1947. Mr. Shufelt is a recording artist, appearing regularly on radio and television. His voice was heard on Billy Graham's Hour of Decision on January 25.

This service is open to the public.

HOME INMATE KILLED

Wolves formerly ranged over most of Europe, Asia and North America, but were not found in Africa or South America.

Propose Amendments To Traffic Regulations

Harrisburg (P)—First offenders in speeding cases would be given a warning instead of an automatic suspension under a new series of graduated penalties being studied today by the Senate.

The measure, sponsored by four Democrats, would stamp the driver's license of first offenders with a warning. They now face a 90-day suspension of their right to operate a motor vehicle.

Suspensions of from 30 to 90 days would be given second offenders while those convicted a third time would lose their license for six months. The license would be revoked permanently on the fourth offense.

Another new bill would extend the closing time for public taverns from Saturday midnight to 2 a. m. Sunday. Under present law, clubs are permitted to serve alcoholic beverages until 3 a. m. Sundays although public drinking places must close at midnight.

Worship of crocodiles was once common in ancient Egypt.

There were nine present for the initial session and it is hoped this number will be increased when the next meeting is held at seven o'clock tomorrow evening.

Gunfighter's Return by Leslie Ernenwein

Chapter Ten

HUGH JUBAL glanced at Stromberg, revealing in that brief gesture a slavish obedience. The thought came to Rimboud that they'd fought the Civil War in black and white, yet here was a white man in bondage to his boss.

"Speak up," Stromberg commanded impatiently.

Hugh had no liking for this and showed it in the grudging way he said, "Well, it was a mistake."

"That's not enough," Rimboud said.

An expectant hush settled on the room; a silence so strict that the ticking of a clock above the bar was as loud as a cannon. Anger brightened Jubal's brown eyes; it stained his frown-rutted brow and was a growling undertone when he muttered, "I'm sorry it happened."

"You should be," Rimboud said. "Tell Limby Smith the same thing."

Jubal's eyes bugged wide with disbelief. "For just shovin' him off?" he demanded.

"For knocking him down."

Perspiration glistened against the sorrel stubble on Hugh's long jaw. His lip and forehead were beaded with sweat. Indecision gripped him so that he was like a man teetering on the top rail of a corral fence, and in this moment of suspension Fonso Peal said excitedly, "Smith was drunk and disorderly."

Without shifting his glance from Jubal's face, Rimboud said, "You keep out of this, Peal. Then he asked, 'How about it, Jubal? How about it?'"

"Now by a damn sight," Jubal shouted, emphasizing his refusal by shaking a fist. "I ain't apologizin' to no drunken pum!"

He was like that, with one hand up, when Rimboud tilted forward and hit him in the face.

Jubal's squallous curse was echoed by the meat market and another blow that mashed his nostrils. He floundered into Lew Stromberg and was still off balance when Rimboud caught him with a sledge-right to the ribs. Wholly confused by the swift savagery of Rimboud's attack, Jubal skidded

Chapter Eleven

THE hot glare of noon's shadowless sunlight was on Main Street when Jim Rimboud came out of the Alhambra Hotel. He had slept the clock around, yet he didn't feel rested. He had downed two cups of black coffee in the dining room but still felt sluggish and depressed. Even the cigarette he smoked didn't taste right.

"Too much bourbon last night," Rimboud reflected moodily.

But he knew it was more than that. This wasn't an ordinary lingovert caused by indulgence after long abstinence. It was spawned by a bleak sense of futility and frustration. He had come to Junction with the most peaceful intentions a man could have, wanting food and rest and another look at Eve Odgarde. But he had been challenged at every turn. Resolved to quit the gun game, he had been obliged to take on the sorriest scum in the book—a protection of a homestead against big-outfit invasion. And Eve Odgarde was engaged to the man he was obliged to fight. It seemed as if the whole deck was stacked against him.

Rimboud discarded the cigarette and gave Main Street a squinted appraisal. The town had looked good to him when he rode in last night. A moonlit oasis. But now Junction's warped planks and dilapidated buildings stood revealed in all their harsh reality.

Sheriff Sol Robillard came out of the Shanghai Café and stood there prying at his teeth with a toothpick while Rimboud walked up to him. "Good morning," Robillard greeted in a blandly impersonal voice. "What's this I hear about you riding for Sam Maiben?"

"You heard right," Rimboud said.

"But the man is a fugitive from justice," Robillard insisted. "A wanted cow thief. Why get mixed up with him?"

"My business," Rimboud said. "I'm warning you that any interference with the capture of Maiben will not be tolerated."

Rimboud laughed at him. He asked, "Would that be a threat or a warning, Sol?"

"A warning. My political future may depend on what takes place in the next few days. I want no more trouble for the newspapers to puff up into headlines. Don't want it, and won't stand for it."

"So?" Rimboud mused. "Well, now I'll tell you something, Sol. I endant. "We might possibly lease it to the Parking Authority, but I guess that's out," said one member. Nat Drake, Parking Authority chairman, was present and promised that use of the lot as a thoroughfare connecting lower Market street and Clark street also will be considered.

After bids for a new police car had been opened, a committee session resulted in approval of a resolution toward purchase of a new two-door Hudson sedan for $600 cash plus the trade-in of a 1951 Chevrolet now in use. The successful bidder was the Conewango Valley Motors, Inc., 7 South Carver street.

The request of the Warren Lions' club for use of Warren Airport, May 19, to field the Mills Brothers circus, was referred by President W. E. Rice to the buildings and lands committee, the police committee and W. F. Maier, lessee of the airport.

High compliment was paid to Gilbert H. Reier for his annual report on the Parks department, which included a complete inventory of equipment and real estate.

and Council members were reminded that this may be reviewed in the Municipal office.

Councilman Patchen, for the building and lands committee, reported on the proposed re-zoning of North Market street from a point 150 feet north of Fourth avenue to Seventh avenue. A letter from James H. Frantz, chairman, and Carl W. Rogers, secretary, Warren Borough Planning Commission, stated that no further action is necessary, that portion having been changed from R-2 residential to R-3 which permits construction of multiple dwellings or alterations into multiple dwellings, and the matter was tabled.

The request of the United Refinery and National Transit for abandonment of River street south from the Pennsylvania tracks to the Allegheny river was referred to Solicitor Knox Harper and the buildings and lands committee. It was revealed that this portion of the street never has been a thoroughfare.

Also referred to Mr. Harper and this committee was the request of Anthony Font, 1 Nesmith street, for the purchase from the borough of a lot immediately to the rear of his property, for use as a garden. Recommendations will be made at the March meeting.

Leon Laskaris, chairman of the finance committee, reported that C. O. Swanson had completed the audit for January and obtained Council's approval for payment of $29,157.56 in bills, including a payroll of over $17,000. Council passed a resolution to continue a 1 per cent payment to the borough tax collector on all taxes received and collected. Final action on the budget will be taken when the new assessment is determined.

President Rice asked Council members to be on the look-out for parcels of land in the borough which might be acquired for use as parking lots.

Averill street residents protested construction of a new transformer, for North Warren, in that area, mentioning possible danger, TV obstruction and a mar to beauty as their reasons. This matter was referred to Councilman Brackett Ayers and his committee.

Councilman Jesse Smith's report for the police committee showed 540 arrests during January, 508 of which were for parking violations, with $482 in fines collected.

A resolution was passed to permit the Public Safety committee to sell "unclaimed bicycles and parts of bicycles."

Council approved Resolutions of Respect in the death of Robert H. Trusler, longtime member of Council and a member of the Civil Service Commission at the time of his death George Geracimus was named to succeed Mr. Trusler as a Civil Service member.

Eagle Scout Lindberg Speaks At Luncheon of Rotary Club

"How a Scout Takes Over the Leadership Qualities of a Good Citizen" was the topic discussed in an able manner by Eagle Scout David Lindberg before the Warren Rotarians at their weekly luncheon meeting in the YWCA on Monday, in recognition of National Boy Scout Week.

David told of his first Scouting experience as a Cubber, and said that of six in the Den, two now are Eagles, two are Star Scouts and one is a First Class Scout. Having become a tenderfoot at 12, he told of the patrols, hikes, the work of the leaders and the work and fellowship accomplished in the troops. Steps along the way, he said, are Star, Life and Eagle, with the various merit badges indicating achievements won through study and effort. He described Scout cooking and how to take care of oneself and others while in camp. The contribution of the Scout in civic and church endeavor, emergency mobilization for civil defense and other activities were described. He spoke of the need for active citizenry and said that "The leaders of Tomorrow Are the Scouts of Today."

Richard Costley, program chairman, and Scout Executive Rut Sanford spoke briefly, and it was mentioned that Council President Byron W. Knapp is the only council president who attained the rank of Eagle. Mr. Knapp having been on the Scouting records here since he was 12. Mr. Costley praised the local club as having started Scouting here years ago with formation of Warren county's first Council.

Richard Moll, David's advisor in Explorer Post 2, which is affiliated with Grace Methodist church, and his father, Carl Lindberg, assistant advisor, were Rotary guests.

You can find a job you like near home in the Army Reserve.

We interrupt this program...

When emergencies arise... such as a blizzard-blocked highway, a sudden flood, the need for a rare blood type at the local hospital... radio does a magnificent job of spreading the word, just as it does with less dramatic news.

But... how does word of the emergency get to the radio station?

By telephone... just as millions of other messages, urgent and otherwise, reach their destinations—day after day. By telephone... the line of communications that's seldom dramatic, yet always so dependable that it is taken for granted.

That's the way you, and we, want it to be.

Bottlers Against Cent Tax on Soft Drinks and Papers

Harrisburg (P)—The Keystone Bottlers Association thinks that a one cent tax on soft drinks and newspapers would result in "complete turmoil."

"No industry can exist, let alone prosper, under the weight of such taxation," Z. H. Confair, Williamsport, president of the bottlers association, wrote over the weekend.

"A tax on newspapers would wound to a 20 per cent sales tax. Based on the soft drink industry's experience, circulation would fall 20 to 25 per cent. This would cause complete turmoil in your entire business operations."

Confair's observations referred to a tax bill package proposed in the state house two weeks ago by Rep. Adam T. Bower (R-Northumberland). The bill would tax newspapers one cent and would revive a one cent soft drink tax.

"No industry can exist, let alone prosper, under the weight of such taxation," said Confair in a letter to Theodore A. Serrill, general manager of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association.
